READING IS FUN

Hooked on Books

Terrific tales to enchant kids of all ages.

Peek-a-Zoo

($9, baby to 3; littlescholastic.com)

Little Scholastic launches a new line of interactive touch-and-feel books to introduce babies and toddlers to the magic world of reading.

Star Wars: A Pop-Up Guide to the Galaxy

($33, ages 7+)

Pop-up master Matthew Reinhart has created an awesomely cool must-read. Watch out—your hubby will probably try to steal it from your child. May the Force be with you!

Baby Bear, Baby Bear, What Do You See?

($17, baby to 4)

Add this picture book to your child's collection. It's the last collaboration from Eric Carle and the late, great Bill Martin Jr.

Go green

The Down-to-Earth Guide to Global Warming

($16, ages 8+)

It's easy being green with Laurie David and Cambria Gordon's informative book, which helps kids understand what's happening to our environment.

Journey to the Moon

($27, ages 3+)

Your kid will have a blast with Lucio and Meera Santoro's book—part pop-up, part stage, it highlights different modes of transportation.

Freckleface Strawberry!

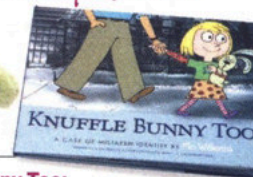

Freckleface Strawberry

($17, ages 3 to 8)

By award-winning actress and mom Julianne Moore. Check out an excerpt from this awesome book on page 262.

Knuffle Bunny Too:

A Case of Mistaken Identity ($17, ages 3 to 6)

How cool is the art in this fabulous picture book? We love the way Mo Willems mixes real photos with terrific illustrations. Oh, and we love the story too.
